

Kings and Queens of the Astro
Oakhill Prep's u12 boys and Girls Hockey Tournament

Now in its 3rd year the Oakhill Kings and Queens of the Astro has entrenched itself on the local hockey calendar. Only for u12 it provides schools the opportunity to play there u12 and start planning for the next years hockey. The Oakhill Astro, with its amazing views, providing the perfect backdrop and surface for these super stars of the future to showcase their talents. This year once again provided hockey of a high standard with defending champions Glenwood retaining the crown in the girls section and sharing the spoils with Plett in the boys section.
